

Construction of the new school in Andaung Chenh, April 2009.

Storage for the building material and office at the same time

The last hours of work before Khmer New Year starts...

After celebrating the Khmer New Year everybody is back to work after 20th April

This shows the real quality workmanship of the construction workers

This will be the first 6 class rooms on the groundfloor...

This foundation will be strong enough for the two stories.